

Color Theory in Oil, One Day Workshop, January 28th, 2024, 10am-3pm with
Betsy Jones McDonald

Gain a deeper understanding of color. This workshop will take you step by step through color mixing. You will learn the psychology of colors and when and where to use them for the most impact.

We will paint together concentrating on color, movement and brushstroke.

$135.00 for the 1-day workshop

(A $50.00 nonrefundable deposit will hold your place; checks can be made out to Betsy McDonald and mailed to the address below.)

Materials needed: primary red, yellow and blue plus Titanium White oil paints (I'll be using Royal Talens Cobra Pyrolle Red, Cobra Permanent Yellow Medium and Cobra Cobalt Blue) Please get professional grade paints, no student grade.

(1) 16x20 canvas

#2, #4, #6 and #8 filbert bristle brushes (I like Princeton 5200 or 5400 series natural brushes)

(1) #1 or #2 liner or script brush

Palette, Linseed Oil (I don't use medium, but you can if you prefer), Ruler or T-square, eraser, light blue colored pencil and

Odorless thinner (unless you are using Cobra water soluble oils)

Upcoming workshop

January 28th, 10am -3pm

Bring a bag lunch

Name: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

To register call or email

betsymcdon@gmail.com , 207-320-5884

Mail checks made out to Betsy McDonald

841 Dunham Street

Charleston, SC 29492